Senate Is Expecting New Amendment on Treaties

Washington, Jan. 29. (AP)—Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, announced today that a substitute for the Bricker treaty-power amendment will be introduced in the Senate today "with substantial" Democratic support.

Knowland declared at a news conference to say whether Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), whose proposed constitutional amendment has aroused vigorous opposition from President Eisenhower, would join in offering the proposal. Other senators said this seemed unlikely.

By R. H. NICHOLS

A final decision is due Monday night on removing the safety hazard of the old Shive School building. Dr. J. J. Muirhead, president, has called a special meeting of the Board of Education to settle the issue. I am told members of the board are agreed on selling the old three-story brick structure and its contents for salvage. They expect to retain the real property for use either in the physical education or intra-mural athletic programs of Vernon High School. That is, after the building has been torn down and the basement's excavation filled in, the tract will be converted into something of a playground. The abandoned building long ago was declared a definite hazard because of deteriorated walls and ceilings. Lewis demanded total repeal of the 1947 labor-management relations law.

Declines To Testify

The president of the United Mine Workers Union, in a letter to Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), "respectfully" declined an invitation to testify at hearings now being held on the President's program. Smith is chairman of the Senate Labor Committee.

Lewis Denounces President's Plan For T-H Changes

Washington, Jan. 29. (AP)—John L. Lewis today denounced President Eisenhower's Taft-Hartley proposals as "pale palliatives, calculated falsely to soothe rather than genuinely to cure the manifold inequities and injustices so deeply imbedded in the act."

Jobless Up Half Million To 2,360,000

"Such amendments, if enacted, run to increase and compound the 'felony' already perpetrated on the laboring people of America in the original instance.

Relief Promised

"A far cry, these amendments, from the utterances of the presidential candidate in the Summer and Fall of 1952 when, for political favors sought, genuine relief was promised."

Observers recalled two specific campaign promises from Eisenhower on the Taft-Hartley law. He said the anti-Communist oath, required only of union officials, should either be extended to employers or taken out of the law; and he said a provision for union representation elections held while workers were out on strike could conceivably be used to "bust" unions and needed changing.

Claude E. Gracy Dies Thursday

Claude E. Gracy, 46, Vernon road contractor, died at 7 p. m. Thursday in a local hospital. He suffered a heart attack three days ago while visiting his widow who is ill in a hospital here.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday in Sullivan's Funeral Home Chapel, with Rev. Oscar Mayo, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Wilbarger Memorial Park.

He is survived by his widow; one son, Bobbie Gracy of Vernon; one daughter, Mrs. James Long of Crowell; four granddaughters; and one grandson.

W. G. Crites, Roy Krebs, Clyde Newth, W. H. Frith, Neal Slappy, Henry Scott, C. H. Woods and Carl Perry will serve as pall bearers.

Mr. Gracy, a native of Marietta, Okla., moved to Vernon in 1929 from that city. He was married to the former Miss Mary Agnes Dunn in 1927 in Marietta. He was a member of the Second Baptist Church.

More Than 600 Women Join Mothers' March on Polio

Washington, Jan. 29. (AP)—The Census Bureau said today unemployment rose by half a million between December and January to an estimated total of 2,360,000 jobless this month.

Employment dropped by about a million in the same period and, in the week ended Jan. 9, was recorded at 59,800,000, the Bureau said.

As it was last month, joblessness in January is running about 450,000 above the level of a year ago. About 3.8 per cent of civilian workers are unemployed, as against 3 per cent last year, the figures showed.

The Bureau said the total decline in employment was not greater than the December-January drop in most other recent years, but affected some industries which are not usually subject to the seasonal sag.

Unemployment, which nearly always rises sharply after Christmas holiday season, climbed from 1,850,000 in December to the estimated 2,360,000 in January.

Restraining Orders Issued Against Insurance Firms

Austin, Jan. 29. (AP)—Restraining orders to prevent two El Paso insurance companies from doing business in Texas have been granted by Judge Charles O. Bettis of 98th District Court.

The 10-day restraint was ordered after Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard brought charges that United Lloyd's and United World Life Insurance companies are improperly organized to do business in Texas.

BULLETINS

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 29. (AP)—President Tito was re-elected unanimously by Parliament today after proclaiming Yugoslavia's willingness to do business with all nations—including Russia and the Soviet satellites—on a basis of "mutual respect."

Washington, Jan. 29. (AP)—Former Asst. Atty. Gen. Herbert A. Bergson was acquitted today of violating the Federal conflict-of-interest law. U. S. Dist. Judge Charles V. McLaughlin granted a defense motion for acquittal. His ruling is final and cannot be appealed by the Government.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 29. (AP)—A Republican spokesman's charge that CIO President Walter Reuther is "the ring leader of depression talk" brought a response from the labor leader today that "artificial optimism . . . will not assure a realistic economic policy."

Defendants in Gun Case Get Suspended Sentences

J. A. (Doc) Blevins and Norman Thornton each received suspended five-year prison terms Friday morning in 46th District Court here. Judge Jesse Owens sentenced them separately after they waived jury trial and pleaded guilty to charges of receiving and concealing stolen property.

Judge Owens severely reprimanded both Vernon men in a 15-minute criticism of their previous firm stand in professing innocence.

They had been indicted by a Wilbarger County grand jury on charges of accepting from a Wichita Falls man more than 60 guns and reselling them to persons here.

District Attorney Leon Douglas recommended the suspended terms after the men entered guilty pleas.

Blevins was represented by R. R. Donaghey and John Storey. Thornton's attorney was Curtis Renfro.

Hung Jury Thursday

Ten hours of testimony, attorney's arguments and deliberation by a hopelessly hung jury ended at 7:25 p. m. Thursday in a mistrial in this section. Blevins and his wife testified they received first five, then eight, six and 43 guns—plus one for the defendant personally.

Altogether more than 100 of the guns were recovered by officers here, Wichita Falls and elsewhere in this section. Blevins and his wife testified they received first five, then eight, six and 43 guns—plus one for the defendant personally.

Later one of the jurors said a first vote was 11 to 1 for conviction, then dropped to 9-3 for conviction. Every one of the 12 jurors told the court he believed they would never reach a verdict. Then Judge Owens discharged them and declared the mistrial.

Peace Treaty Also Included In Proposal

Berlin, Jan. 29. (AP)—Russia and the three Western Allies agreed today to consider rival proposals for world disarmament talks in secret sessions next week.

Berlin, Jan. 29. (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden submitted to the Big Four conference today a five-stage plan for the unification of Germany "and the conclusion of a freely negotiated peace treaty."

Seven persons, including the man named Skinner identified by Blevins, are under indictment in Wichita County for their part in the theft.

Altogether more than 100 of the guns were recovered by officers here, Wichita Falls and elsewhere in this section. Blevins and his wife testified they received first five, then eight, six and 43 guns—plus one for the defendant personally.

Received No Refund

Blevins said he had not collected any refund on the money he paid the Wichita Falls man for the firearms.

Jurors in the mistrial declared Thursday were Foreman Forrest Orr, Rufus E. Moore, Hubert Abston, Jim Hamilton, Clois Morris, T. J. Boyd, G. A. Shivers, Harold Bowman, S. E. Lawlis, Dee Norwood, A. J. Lambert and Kenneth Alexander.

Thornton had based his plea of not guilty before the grand jury on the claim his only part in the case was receiving the guns from Blevins and selling them for him. He professed he knew nothing of where or how Blevins got the guns.

The case was first broken with arrest of the two local men on Dec. 2.

Other cases on the criminal docket of 46th District Court here were postponed Friday morning following disposition of the cases against Blevins and Thornton. The next term of court is in March.

Sex Maniac Strikes Again In Montreal

Montreal, Jan. 29. (AP)—Montreal's slasher, described by police and psychiatrists as a sex maniac, struck again today.

A 27-year-old unidentified woman told police the slasher cut her leg with a sharp object while she was waiting for a streetcar in downtown Montreal. A man pushed beside her, she said, and then she noticed her leg was bleeding. She was taken to a hospital for treatment.

He said he had repaid every person to whom he had sold the weapons at prices ranging from $42.50 to $50 each. Retail value of the guns is about $100 apiece, it was established. The defendant said he had paid $30 to $35 each for the guns.

Mrs. Blevins was on the witness stand less than 15 minutes and calmly corroborated her husband's story.

Then a line of character witnesses were introduced by the defense, including Owen Carpenter, Ennis McCrary, E. H. Pigg, John F. Hutchins and Dale Davis of Vernon; Jack E. Denison and Malcolm Strothers of Wichita Falls.

Just Like Spring In Texas Friday

(By The Associated Press)

Texas had a preview of Spring Friday.

Temperatures were downright balmy and ground-seasong slow, light rain or drizzle fell in a wide area from the Gulf through the midlands.

While most of the state was cloudy, the sun peeked through at Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Childress and in the El Paso area. Increasing cloudiness, building toward week-end rains, were expected.

Forecasts called for warmer temperatures and scattered light rain Friday and Saturday in East

February 15 Date Nautilus To Get Atomic Reactor

Austin, Jan. 29. (P)—The atomic reactor which will provide the power for the submarine Nautilus will be put into the boat on Feb. 15. Adm. Robert B. Carney, Navy chief of operations, disclosed in an article written for the current edition of the magazine National Business.

The craft was launched at Groton, Conn., Jan. 21.

Fueling Scheduled

Carney's reference obviously was to the emplacement of the fissile fuel and final details of the shielding against radioactivity. The steam turbine which will get its heat from the atomic "firebox" already was in place when the Nautilus went down the ways.

However, to ease the load on the huge 3,000-ton hull in the launching procedure the hefty weight of the U-235 fuel and the control equipment was left for installation later at the fitting-out dock.

The reactor and propulsion equipment was built by Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Potential Is Enormous

Carney, in his article, noted that "the potential energy in a single lump of uranium (from which U-235 is processed—the size of a golf ball is equivalent to 465,000 gallons of oil, or six million pounds of coal."

The Nautilus, said Carney, gives the United States Navy the lead in atomic seapower, "yet the Nautilus is but the Model T of our Navy of tomorrow."

New Briefs Filed In Ouster Case

Austin, Jan. 29. (P)—Two new sharply-worded briefs assailing and defending District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice were in the hands of Texas' nine Supreme Court justices today.

They were filed late yesterday by opposing attorneys in the history-making case in which the Supreme Court was asked by 11 attorneys practicing in the 79th Judicial District to remove Laughlin.

One more formal step remains before the court can rule. Yesterday was the deadline for final written briefs; on Feb. 10 final oral arguments will be heard. A decision may then require long study of the bulky record.

Family Reacquainted After Apart 21 Years

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 29. (P)—Mrs. Josephine Loflin, 28, Pasadena, Texas, her mother, and her three sisters are getting reacquainted here after 21 years.

Mrs. Loflin saw her mother, Mrs. Eva May Ferri of Little Rock, this week for the first time since she was seven years old.

She was also reunited with her three sisters, one of whom—Mrs. Mary Irene Kesel, 26, of Galveston—had been living nearby.

The other sisters, who last remembered Mrs. Loflin as a "chubby little girl," are Mrs. Louise Cannon, 30, Glenwood, Ark., and Mrs. Rosie Dering, 34, St. Louis, Mo.

The family was divided in 1931 when Mrs. Ferri and the girls' father separated in St. Louis. Mrs. Ferri took three of the daughters. The father, Charles Ferri of Vicksburg, La., took Josephine with him.

Mrs. Loflin said she began trying to find her mother and sisters when she got married at 16. But she had no success until three weeks ago.

"I suddenly remembered," she said, "that my grandmother had bought a home at Little Rock." She wrote the Little Rock city clerk, got her grandmother's address, and then wrote her.

SHAMROCK HOTEL SUED

Houston, Jan. 29. (P)—A Wichita Falls attorney has filed a $100,000 damage suit against the Shamrock Hotel and its president, oilman Glenn McCarthy, following a dispute over 13 cents. R. J. Ballard's petition claims he was "insulted" when a telephone call he was making from the hotel to a Houston hospital was delayed. The suit alleges the call was delayed because $20 he deposited on an $8 room was 13 cents short of covering the hotel bill. Shamrock Credit Mgr. George Marshall denied Ballard was treated discourteously.

Texan Pleads Not Guilty To Smuggling

Austin, Jan. 29. (P)—A Texan pleaded guilty, a Texan not guilty, yesterday on charges they joined a Mexican national in a smuggling plot that brought 69 head of rare and costly Chacolac cattle into the United States.

The cattle were valued at more than half a million dollars.

The guilty plea was entered by Alphe A. Broussard, Lafayette, La., rancher whose passion to own some of the fine beef cattle led him to secure the cattle from Antonio Enrique Gilly of Atlixco, Mexico.

William Babb of Del Rio, who was accused of transporting the cattle by truck after they were herded across the dry bed of the Rio Grande, pleaded not guilty on all 10 counts in the indictment.

Sentencing of Broussard was deferred by Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Jr., until March 1 at Waco. Trial of Babb was not set but is expected to be held sometime after Feb. 8 during the present term of court.

Gilly was reported in Paris, France, with efforts to extradite him unsuccessful.

60 More GIs Presumed Dead

Austin, Jan. 29. (P)—The Army today identified 60 additional soldiers, missing in Korean action for more than a year, in whose cases a presumptive finding of death now has been made.

The Army said no information has been received to indicate any of them might be alive.

In six previous lists the Army has named 3,372 officers and men, once listed as missing, whom it now presumes to be dead.

Today's list includes:

Cpl. Warnell A. Fogle, brother of Esker O. Fogle, Waco. Cpl. Clinton E. Smith, son of Arthur D. Smith, Hooks. Pfc. Pedro G. Villereal, son of Francisco Villereal, Victoria.

Daily Paper Circulation At All-Time High in 1953

New York, Jan. 29. (P)—Editor and publisher, newspaper trade publication, says daily newspaper circulation in this country reached an all-time high in 1953—almost 54% million.

The publication said the year's end found 1,785 dailies in the United States—a decline of one from the previous year.

The publication gave the following breakdown:

An increase of 521,671 in the number of copies sold daily by newspapers, setting a new high of 54,472,286 net paid copies.

Daily circulation increased .97 per cent, with morning papers having the edge.

Daily circulation for 327 morning papers rose to 21,412,474 copies, an increase of 252,947 or 1.2 per cent.

Of 1,458 daily evening papers, there was a circulation increase of 268,224 copies, bringing their total daily circulation to 33,059,812.

A loss of .57 per cent in Sunday circulation, the total for 544 papers being 45,948,554—a decline of 261,582.

Of all the dailies in the nation, 1,043 were in cities with less than 25,000 population. The small-city papers had a total circulation of 6,693,336.

Woman Hugs Cobbie but Intentions Not Amorous

Philadelphia, Jan. 29. (P)—A woman put her arm around Leon Minehan's neck in his taxicab Thursday.

But Leon didn't enjoy it a bit because in her other hand the woman had a knife and it was pointed at his throat.

Under those circumstances, Minehan was glad to oblige when his husky-voiced passenger suggested he "be a good boy and take a little walk."

While Minehan walked, the woman drove off with his cab. Police are still looking for the cab.

FEWER DRAFT-DODGERS

Austin, Jan. 29. (P)—Draft-dodging decreased slightly in Texas as last year. At the start of 1954, local boards reported 700 delinquencies to State Selective Service. That is about 100 less than the figure for a year ago. Most of the delinquents are in the big cities.

now the discussion has been temperate. The suggestion about a meeting between parents and teachers sounds practical. I am sure school authorities would welcome an opportunity for an exchange of ideas and opinions between teachers and patrons. Only good could result if the discussion should deal with practical matters. No doubt members of each group would come away from such a meeting with a better understanding of our school system and with heightened respect for each other. I am all for it, but my sympathy would go to the person selected as moderator. People sometimes become emotional in discussing education.

I have received some help on trying to give a satisfactory definition of Communist. A few days ago, it will be recalled, I had a request from a "Worried Mother" asking me to help out with a definition which would be understood by a nine-year-old boy. I complied, knowing that any definition I might give would not be complete. What I tried to do was to state in terms understandable to a nine-year-old boy something of the beliefs and attitudes of Communists. Several told me they liked it. I haven't heard from the other side. Probably many more don't like it. But our friend and former fellow-townsman, L. W. Traxler, writes from Martinsville, Ind., to offer some value help.

Parr Trial Reset For March 15

Alice, Jan. 29. (P)—Trials of South Texas political leaders George B. Parr and one-time Duval County Deputy Sheriff Juan Barrera yesterday were reset for March 15.

The two had been scheduled to go on trial here Feb. 15 on charges of carrying pistols illegally.

County Judge Wash Storm, Jr., reset the cases after Parr's attorney, Ed Lloyd, asked for a delay because of a prior commitment.

County Attorney Sam Burris agreed to the postponement.

Parr and Barrera were arrested on a complaint by Manuel Marroquin.

Marroquin accused the two of carrying guns near a meeting of the Duval County Freedom Party Jan. 16. He said Parr threatened to kill him and other members of the party.

The meeting was held near San Diego, 10 miles away, but inside the Jim Wells County line.

Parr denied he was carrying a gun or made threats. He said he was carrying a pair of binoculars.

In order for the dictator to control he must have lots of little dictators under him, or a privileged class that gets what it wants. The Russian government, although an absolute dictatorship, enjoys being called Communistic. You write that the Russians have no god. I think they have two, Lenin in his shrine and Stalin on his feet, with their political ideology as their bibles. Malenkov made a mistake, in my mind, in not building himself as a disciple of Stalin, instead of pushing Stalin into the background and trying to convert the Russians to himself as the new god. I think you could do a lot of good developing this line of argument against Communism."

I didn't write that Russians have no god. What I said was they don't believe in God, meaning the God of Christianity and Judaism. Of course, as already pointed out, I was trying to write a definition in simple terms and dealing with practical matters which are within the experience of even a nine-year-old boy. It is true, as Trax points out, that Communists preach one thing and practice another. But historic Communism is important only to the extent that it enables us to understand practical Communism. It is the latter we must deal with.

PICTURE NEWS AROUND THE WORLD

ANOTHER NEW ONE—It's the North American F-86 Sabrejet, shown in Los Angeles. The swift prototype trainer is basically an F-86F with tandem cockpit, dual controls and a fuselage five feet longer than the fighter version. It travels at more than 650 mph.

WHOOPS!—After it went out of control in Brooklyn, N. Y., this car landed on its roof. It had hit a fence, ricocheted off a tree and overturned, and the driver was taken to a hospital with only minor injuries instead of a broken back or neck.

SMALLER LIKENESS—Because Mary Martin was nominated as the theater's best dressed woman of the year, an exact replica was made for her of the fabulous wardrobe she is wearing in her play with Charles Boyer, "Kind Sir." The miniature costumes were made by the show's wardrobe woman who used pieces of the materials in Main Bocher's $15,000 designs in New York.

THIS IS THE LIFE!—One London resident who did not find the recent cold wave uncomfortable is Mischa, a polar bear in the zoo. He's taking things rather easy in this photo, and it's more than likely that he's dreaming of a happy world made up exclusively of snow and ice and below-zero weather.

EXTRA LARGE SIZE—Leatherneck Cpl. Elmer C. Gznik is giving some close inspection to that colorful straw hat made by natives of San Juan, P. R. Gznik, from Chicago, has completed tours in Hawaii and China and is now in Puerto Rico.

DOG GONE!—The proverbial discomfort of a dog's life is not just an expression in Chicago, as this persecuted pooch could tell you. With the rabies quarantine in effect, policeman Harry Gasiorek is doing his best to grab this one which was on the loose.

JUNIOR EDITIONS—After 26 years as a radio team, Amos and Andy are still close friends, and so are their sons—who have never been photographed together before. So, in Hollywood, here they are: left to right, that's Richard, son of Charles (Andy) Gorrell, and Craig, the son of Freeman (Amos) Gosden. Richard is 5½ and Craig is a year younger.

COIFFURE ALLURE—Wearing an Hawaiian print bathing suit, and bedecked with a plumeria lei, Marcella Harper is shown preparing to go surfing at famed Waikiki Beach at Honolulu. The tanned beauty wears an orchid in her tresses, which are allowed to grow long in the Polynesian tradition of Island queens.

IT'S AN AUTO CHURCH

A DRIVE-IN—At the Whitfield Estates Presbyterian Church in Sarasota, Fla., six deacons pass the collection plates, upper left, at the auto church which is attracting many who ordinarily do not attend services. The Earl Annis family, right, find it easy to hear the sermon as Richard, 12, adjusts the loudspeaker to suit them all. Below, the Rev. B. L. Bowman is shown delivering the opening sermon to churchgoers who listen in the comfort of their own autos.

Garner Says He's Lazy, Sells Stock in Bank

Uvalde, Jan. 29. (P)—Former Vice President John Nance Garner says he's lazy and no-account so he's sold his stock and retired as a director of the First State Bank of Uvalde.

"Cactus Jack," 84, announced he had sold all his stock in the bank to other stockholders. He had been affiliated with the bank more than 40 years.

Garner said that in retiring he was "probably vacating the last office" he will ever take oath to administer.

He is former Texas Congressman and was Vice President during the first two terms of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration. He has lived quietly in his home here since the

New Cager in Vernon Lineup Friday Night

Visitors Get Favorite Nod Over Lions

A new face will be in the starting lineup of the Vernon Lions when they take the floor Friday night against the Plainview Bulldogs.

Either Tommy Smith or Jerry Pearson will be one of the new first line men. Carl Franks, regular last semester, failed two subjects and has been declared ineligible for play.

Other members of the first five are Gene Miller, center, Jack Bolton and Robert Harvey, forwards, and Chris Krebs, guard.

In this their first game of the second half of the district schedule, the Lions will be prominent underdogs. The Dogs are rolling along at a spanking pace of nine straight wins, and are undefeated in district competition.

Lion Coach Bob Percival believes the story may have a different ending this time than at Plainview in the first meeting between the two clubs. The Lions took an unmerciful clubbing, losing in a 57-37 rout. Mr. Percival said Friday morning he considers his team a vastly improved one over the aggregation of that day. He also doesn't believe Plainview has improved as much as Vernon.

He does admit Plainview belongs in the favorite role, and that his team will have to play a top quality brand of ball in order to win.

A B game at 6:30 will get the evening's activities under way. Expected to take the floor for Vernon are Ronnie Ziacek at center, Carl Franks and Billy Towry at forwards and Keith Morris and Curtis Graf at guards. The B team holds a 40-39 win over the Bulldog second line outfit.

GOLF FINALS SUNDAY

Miami, Fla., (P)—Barring an upset, the U. S. Women's Amateur golf champion will meet the British women's titleholder in finals of the Helen Lee Doherty Tournament Sunday. Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., defending champion of the Doherty and American titleholder, is at the top of the championship flight and Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, Ontario, British women's champion, is at the bottom. If both win their matches and gain the finals, they'll meet for the title Sunday over the Miami Shores Country Club course where women's par is 37-38-75.

DEER SELLERS PAY DEARLY

B TEAM LOSES

Jackie Phillips and James Bolton each pumped in eight points for the winning Vernon team. Tommy McClung was good for eight counters in the B's losing encounter.

The A team again will see action against Paducah Monday night, along with the ninth graders in a doubleheader here.

Oklahoma Golfer Leads Meet Field

Palm Springs, Calif., (P)—Oklahoma's handsome Bo Wininger is regarded as one of professional golf's budding young stars and his spectacular 11 under par 61 led the field in the first round of the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational Tournament.

Today, the newcomer to tournament fame was faced with the problem of hanging on to his two-stroke lead and holding off such seasoned threats as Ben Hogan, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and others in the select field of 36 pros.

Wininger, whose best in a major tournament was second to Lloyd Mangrum in the Phoenix Open last year, set a new record for the par 36-36-72, 6,314-yard Thunderbird Country Club. The veteran amateur star, Johnny Dawson, one of the founders of Thunderbird, held the old mark at 64.

Harrison, leading pro in the Bing Crosby and San Diego tournaments—shot a 63 yesterday.

Hogan, winter pro at the neighboring Tamarisk Country Club, toured the course in 31-34-65—three birdies and two eagles decorated his card. Hogan was tied in third place with three others.

BOXER ROBBED

El Paso, (P)—Last night was a bad one for James Fiasconaro, Fort Bliss soldier. While the GI fought in a novice bout at the charity-sponsored Golden Gloves Tournament, somebody entered the dressing room and stole his clothing. To make it worse, Fiasconaro dropped a decision to James Clark in his middleweight bout.

PONIES IN SECOND PLACE

Surging Christians Play SMU

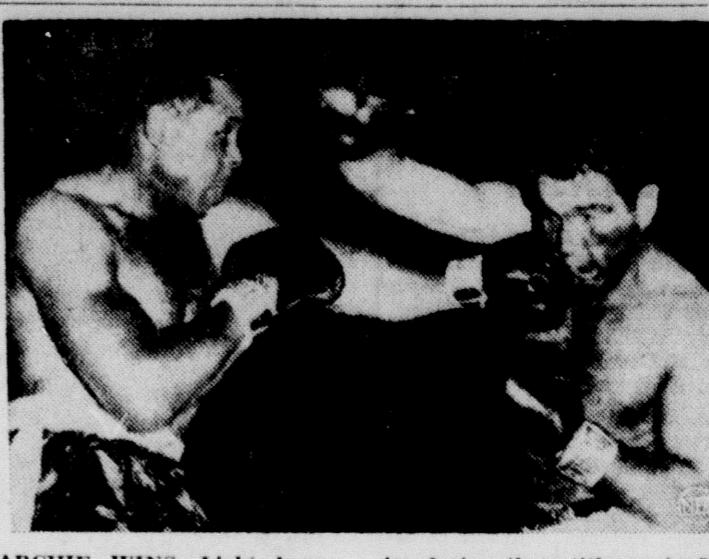

(By The Associated Press)

Defending Champion Texas Christian, beating its way back after a near-disastrous start in the Southwest Conference title drive, meets Southern Methodist Saturday night in the State's feature basketball game.

Arkansas plays Phillips Oilers Friday night in Bartlesville, Okla., and Baylor and Texas play intersectional opponents Saturday evening.

But most attention will fasten on the resurgent Christians and the second-place Methodists.

The Frogs can supplant the Mustangs in a second-place tie with Rice in the conference standing and jump back into title contention with a win.

The Methodists have a 2-1 mark in conference play behind undefeated Texas (4-0) and deadlocked with Rice's Owls, winners of 4 and losers twice.

Next week, mid-term examinations behind them, the Southwest Conference fives open full-scale warfare again. The schedule:

Feb. 1—Texas A&M vs Arkansas.

Feb. 2—Texas vs SMU at Austin.

Feb. 6—SMU vs Texas A&M at Dallas, Texas vs Baylor at Waco, TCU vs Arkansas at Fort Worth, Rice vs Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches.

Cougars in Houston.

Baylor, indeed, might have to step up its recent pace to make a game of it with Oklahoma in Waco and Arkansas could do that and still lose.

The Horned Frogs have a 2-2 conference record with opening losses to Rice and Texas and victories in later starts against Baylor and Texas A&M.

Big 'Un Rose's Arkansas Porkers and the Baylor Bears may have their hands full with Phillips' strong aggregation and the University of Oklahoma. But Texas is expected to have little trouble against the University of Houston

Economic Report Reveals Defense Against Slump

By SAM DAWSON
New York. (AP)—The President spelled out Thursday in his economic report more of his plans to shore up business should the present slide show signs of turning into an avalanche.

You'll be hearing the adequacy of the plans debated in the weeks to come.

They are aimed primarily at stimulating business, because jobs stem from business.

For the present that is considered enough, because many industrial executives are so sure that business now has the vitality and the ability to roll with the punches.

Tax Cuts Considered

Already industry has been given easier credit and money conditions and some tax relief. Congress is considering more tax concessions, aimed frankly at making it attractive for industry to spend for new plants and equipment, and to take business risks.

If these tax reforms should fail to create the jobs and the good times which the administration thinks they will, and the recession gets rolling in earnest, two measures could be taken to increase purchasing power, and thus tackle the problem from the other angle.

One would be further cuts in individual income taxes and in excise taxes. This would give people more income they could spend.

The other that the President has already set forth in the State of the Union message is a public works program in readiness to offer jobs and give industry outlets for its production.

Business Comes First

But the first line of defense is the stimulation of business initiative and incentive. The majority of businessmen will likely applaud this wholeheartedly. The suggested tax reforms would remove some of the millstones which business contends hang around its neck.

The minority criticism which you may be hearing in the days ahead will come from two schools.

First is the one that holds that the Government shouldn't coddle business or any other segment of the public, just because someone would get hurt in a recession.

It argues that the Government shouldn't be expected to guarantee that no one loses any marbles when he plays for keeps. Such tinkering by Government, it is contended, does more harm in the end than good.

Some Are Doubtful

The second school doubts if the measures the President proposes in

The Mighty Works of Jesus

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.
THE late W. W. White once analyzed the Gospel of John and laid much stress on the witness of the Master's mighty works.

The miracles in the Gospel are numerous and significant. There is the miracle of the turning of water into wine at the marriage in Cana. Again visiting Cana, Jesus heals a nobleman's sick son at Capernaum (John 4:46-54).

In Jerusalem, at the pool of Bethesda, He cures an infirm man, and because it was on the Sabbath incurs the intense hostility of certain Jews. Then comes the miracle of the feeding of the 5,000.

There is also the miracle of Jesus coming to the disciples, walking on the sea (John 6). —

In Chapter 9 is the story of the restoration of sight of the man born blind.

The crowning of the miracles is the raising of Lazarus from the dead.

The testimony of these mighty works will vary in value according to one's attitude toward miracles in general.

For some the wonder-working aspect of Jesus seems larger than the spiritual significance of Jesus and His teaching.

For others the miracles are evidence of a wonderful life in which the supreme importance was the teaching and the life-giving power that brought new life, not to the body, but to the soul.

Jesus Himself disparaged the materialistic aspect of the miracles. To those who thronged about Him after the feeding of the 5,000 He said: "Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, still have their old-time power to induce mild inflation or to counter deflation.

Here are the arguments, right or wrong, of the Doubting Thomases:

Easing of money and credit, for example, will help a corporation resist financial pressure if it falls on hard times. That's all to the good.

But some ask if in times of business recession easy credit will prove enough to lead businessmen to expand their plants, build up inventories, increase output and payrolls, or take new risks—unless something else assures them of a chance to sell more goods if they make them.

Tax Cuts Welcome

Further tax cuts would be welcomed by business and individuals, especially if corporate sales should sag and personal incomes shrink.

But some ask if tax cuts alone would be enough to induce factories to buy more materials or consumers to buy more finished goods, especially if increases in but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled" (John 6:26).

The late Dr. Lloyd Douglas, whose fame since his lamented death has increased even beyond that of his lifetime because of his notable book, "The Robe," once wrote a book under the title, "Those Disturbing Miracles."

I don't know how much his book may have answered the questions in any minds that were disturbed, but I recall my answer to a young woman in one of my congregations, who was greatly disturbed.

I don't know what was the source of her doubts, but her Christian faith was shaken by wondering whether the miracles attributed to Jesus were to be thought of as like the legendary stories of miraculous things attributed to many other teachers and saints.

I did not try to argue the matter with her. If we could explain miracles they would no longer be miraculous, and there is no "proof" in a scientific sense. It is a matter of belief or faith.

What I suggested to her was that she should forget about the miracles for the time being and concentrate upon all concerning Jesus and the New Testament that involved only the challenge to moral and spiritual faith.

I told her to concentrate on the Sermon on the Mount, the Parables, I Corinthians 13, and the whole teaching of Jesus as contained in His own words, and in the interpretations of those who knew Him best.

I suggested that then she might be in a position to decide about the miracles. If men once believed in the Christ because of the miracles, I believe that today they believe in the miracles because of Christ.

unemployment and decreases in personal income should come faster than tax cuts and make everyone cautious.

Both schools, in short, feel that in the long run the economy will pretty much have to work out its own salvation.

And with very few exceptions indeed, businessmen feel that the American economy is strong enough at present to do that, and in a reasonable time.

Board Approves College Merger

Seguin, Jan. 29. (AP)—The Texas Lutheran College board of directors yesterday approved the merger of Clifton Junior College, near Waco, with Texas Lutheran.

The merger is effective immediately. Clifton College closed at the end of last Fall's semester in anticipation of it.

The college was owned by the Evangelical Lutheran Church, one of three Lutheran bodies cooperating with the American Lutheran Church in administering Texas Lutheran. It was one of the State's oldest private junior colleges, but enrollment had declined.

Mr. McKinney, executive director of Christian Historical Society of Nashville, Tenn., will conduct services at the First Christian Church of Quanah Sunday, Jan. 31.

His topic for the morning service will be "Oil and Wine" and his evening discussion on "Our Deciple Witness" will be in the form of a lecture which will deal with the origin and growth of the church.

Mr. McKinney has spent several years locating and collecting the historical materials of the restoration movement of the early 19th century.

Methodists Plan Revival at Odell

The Odell Methodist Church has planned revival services for the week of Feb. 21-28. Rev. Howard Marcum, pastor of the Methodist Church at Turkey, Texas, will preach each night of the week at 7 o'clock.

Realizing that every Christian is an evangelist in some degree, and taking their cue from the 10th chapter of Luke, several members of the church are planning to visit in the homes that are not connected with a church of the community at present. This is through the men's prayer and study group which meets each Sunday night. The Women's Society of Christian Service, which meets on Monday afternoons, also has a plan of visitation in operation.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the following relative passage will be read: "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need."

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; . . . The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works" (145:8,9).

RAILROAD MEN LAID OFF

Palestine, Texas, Jan. 29. (AP)—Approximately 90 men in the Missouri Pacific Railroad shops here will be laid off Feb. 1 and 3. They were notified yesterday.

HOSTAGES RECOVERED

New Delhi, India, Jan. 29. (AP)—The Government reported Thursday that its forces have recovered 49 hostages held since last October by head-hunting tribesmen in the Abor hills of Northeast Assam.

The hostages, members of friendly tribes, were seized during an ambush in which 70 persons on an Indian good-will mission were slain.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

That the inexhaustible resources of divine Love are available today to bless those who understand the unlimited good that God has provided for man will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" includes the following verse from the Bible:

"Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is today in the field, and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more will He clothe you, O ye of little faith? . . . Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom" (Luke 12:27,28,32).

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Oklahomans Seem To Like Toll Roads.

Voters of Oklahoma have approved a proposal to create authority to construct more than 300 miles of additional toll road. The program will cost more than $150 million and will link Tulsa and Oklahoma City with three neighboring States, Texas, Kansas and Missouri.

The present toll road from Oklahoma City to Tulsa is to be extended to the State line toward Joplin, Mo. Another new road would be constructed from Oklahoma City to the Texas line in the direction of Wichita Falls, while a third new route would extend from Oklahoma City to the Kansas line.

Completion of this program, which, of course, will be a matter of several years because super-highways cannot be built overnight, will provide Oklahoma with the basis of an important network of highways. Certainly no State in this part of the country stands in greater need of new highway construction and it has become obvious that needed construction cannot be financed out of available public funds fast enough to meet the needs of modern traffic.

The special merit of the toll road idea is that it permits immediate construction of badly needed highways without cost to the taxpayer. Bonds to finance the construction are sold to private investors and the obligation is retired out of tolls collected from those who use the highway. If one objects to paying anything on these super-highways all he needs to do is to travel the public roads serving the same territory.

But those who continue using the public roads will profit, because the toll roads will take much of the traffic load. When the public roads are relieved of much of their traffic travel is greatly facilitated. Consequently those who can't afford to patronize the toll roads or refrain from using them as a matter of conviction will gain because the public roads will be safer and travel over them will be much more convenient.

For some time now it has been apparent that the need for highway improvements and new highway facilities was far ahead of the ability of government agencies to meet. This has been due to a number of causes. In war time highway construction came to a virtual standstill. Even maintenance was allowed to lag. The result was that with the rapid increase in traffic the system began to break down. One engineering authority recently said there is need right now for $2 billion worth of new highways. Obviously no such sums can be provided from public funds.

The toll road seems to be the answer. Oklahoma people have given the plan a trial. The results of last Tuesday's election indicates they like it.

Air Force Has About Reached Last Straw on Flying Saucers

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Air Force Intelligence has about reached the last straw on the flying saucer situation. Officers claim that the saucer "work load" has been so great in the last few months that they have been forced to neglect other duties. Orders from the top are that every detail on every reported sighting must be tracked down.

Air Intelligence officers are now working on a plan to give out only periodic reports summarizing all sightings. This would get around the present requirement that each report be given out separately, as it is received.

The Air Force now answers each saucer inquiry with a form letter. About three-fourths of the queries come from teen-agers. The next largest category of queries and reports comes from crackpots. The letter-answering chore alone now costs thousands of dollars a month.

HERBERT PHILBRICK, one of the men who worked his way into the Communist Party apparatus to get information for the FBI, says that Indiana Senator William E. Jenner's Internal Security Investigating Subcommittee is making a lot of hay by its considerate treatment of witnesses.

Those called to testify are cautioned not to mention in public hearings the name of anyone before he has been told he is to be brought into the investigation. Those named are given a chance to comment on any associations or deny any charges. Other precautions are being taken to protect any witnesses who give testimony in secret sessions.

The big result, says Philbrick, is that the word is getting around in Commie circles that anyone who feels like it can talk to the committee or its counsel without any unfavorable public-

Snow and Rain Of Some Help

Austin, Jan. 29. (P)—Last week's snow, sleet and rain was "temporarily helpful" to soil moisture conditions in the Plains country, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Much more moisture will be needed when moderating temperatures start wheat growth. The eastern third of the State still has wet soil.

Supplemental feeding of roughage and cake was increased as light snow, sleet and ice covered small grain fields and pastures in the Plains and northern counties. In the Edwards Plateau and South Texas, moisture is urgently needed to bring on winter grass, weeds and small grain pastures.

Harvest of commercial vegetables continued active in all winter areas.

THE STORY: Grote Marratt, a fugitive from justice, takes the identity of Luke Usher, a man he resembles. Usher had disappeared 15 years ago after the killing of his father, Ryerson, owner of the Wineglass Ranch, had a reputation as a range boss. Marratt, who had been with all of the Usher cattle, had been sold to Beckwith, an Indian agent. Beckwith, the last man Marratt had been with, had seen an Indian girl in Beckwith's office. In an attempt to follow Beckwith to Wineglass, Marratt had followed this Indian girl, struggling in the embrace of Clark Cratton, the Wineglass foreman. Marratt, who had been with all of the cattle that Cratton apparently had been waiting for her.

IT was about 10 when Marratt rode into the Usher yard. Moonglow dappled the buildings with silver but Marratt right then had no eye peeled for beauty. He was weary in mind as well as in body and had to just about pry himself out of the saddle; but he was too much a cowman not to care for his horse.

That cracked rib hurt but he forgot all about it when he stepped onto the stoop. In the center of the door there was a fluttering square of paleness that made a sound like flapping paper.

Marratt's bleak eyes narrowed and he stood there several moments before he at last pulled it loose and went inside and eased the door shut. Only then did he strike a match.

Block letters had been inscribed with a pencil.

USHER: KEEP RIDING IF YOU WANT TO KEEP BREATHING.

He was still staring at it when he realized he wasn't alone.

"Put that light to a lamp."

Marratt crossed to the wall and rubbed the lamp's chimney. He rubbed the flame across the wick.

Only then did he face the sound of the voice to find Gainer eying him across a cocked pistol.

JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES!

Step by step, medical science is winning the fight against dreaded Polio. The encouraging results obtained from G.G. last summer indicate that final and complete victory is in sight. The dimes and dollars you have contributed to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis have made this possible. More money than ever was spent in 1953 for research and for care of those stricken with Polio. It will take more money in '54. Polio is everybody's enemy. Stamping it out is everybody's job. Give — and give generously — to the March of Dimes.
